

SIX BOURBON STREET GENTLEMEN'S CLUBS SETTLE WITH THE LOUISIANA OFFICE OF ALCOHOL CONTROL AHEAD OF THE FEBRUARY 1 SCHEDULED HEARING.

NEW ORLEANS, Louisiana – January 31, 2018 – Six Bourbon Street Gentlemen's Clubs have voluntarily agreed to settle cases arising out of the recent NOPD and ATC enforcement actions. 5 clubs were scheduled to participate in hearings scheduled for February 1, 2018. The hearings would determine whether the emergency suspensions served on the clubs were justified and, if so, what penalties were appropriate. The settlement reached with the ATC negates the need for hearings for these clubs. The final club (Lipstixx), closed its doors prior to being served a suspension but nevertheless reached an agreement with the ATC as well.

The terms of the settlements include many provisions designed to address the issues leading to the emergency suspensions such as regular training, security monitoring, better screening of employees, discharge of employees engaged in criminal activity, etc. The following is a list of clubs which have settled with the ATC and the general terms of the settlement:
